Pope Francis' Prayer Intention April 2019

This month we are asked to join in Pope Francis’ prayer intention, ‘...For doctors and their humanitarian collaborators in war zones, who risk their lives to save the lives of others.’

We are asked to pray for those medical professionals and humanitarian workers do, every day, in the words of this month’s Intention, “risk their lives to save the lives of others”; if they don’t, who will? Our first prayer is in thanksgiving that there are heroic people prepared to do this. Mindful that our prayers must be more than mere empty words, we also look to what action we might take.

Chrism Mass
You are warmly invited to join with Bishop Denis and the priests of the diocese in the Cathedral, Carlow at 7:30pm on Monday, April 15th to celebrate the Chrism Mass - this is the largest diocesan celebration during the year!
The First Stone

It’s a sad fact of life, if you do something good, it isn’t remembered for very long. You are only as good as your last good deed. But if you do something bad, there will be those who insist on never forgetting it. There will always be those who mutter, “Oh that’s ‘so and so’ the one who had the affair.” “That Mr. Thingymajig, the one who embezzled the company funds.” It’s a very sad human failing. We are loathe to let the failings of others go.

In today’s gospel reading the Scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught committing adultery. According to the Law of Moses such a woman should be stoned. What has Jesus to say on the matter? As ever, The Scribes and Pharisees are seeking to trap Jesus into giving an answer that is unlawful. Jesus however is great at not falling into traps. “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone,” he replies.

When we have made a mistake in life, the last thing we need is condemnation. Condemnation is rarely useful. Condemnation sends us to a dark place where we fester. Denied our second chance, our self esteem is eroded. We begin to see ourselves in a different light. Other people think we are bad or weak so perhaps we are. Our self image spirals downwards, we start to behave the way people expect us to behave... badly! But the people, who have pointed the finger of blame; are they really in any position to judge?

We are extraordinarily quick to throw the first stone. Our powers of empathy are limited. Perhaps we enjoy moral outrage. Perhaps we enjoy gossiping at someone else’s expense. Today we are challenged. The next time we open our mouths to condemn, we are asked to find mercy instead, the same mercy we expect when we have fallen from grace.

A Most Precious Gift

When I was a child and wanted to give my mother a really nice gift for her birthday, I would often go to chemist and look at all of the perfume. Some of the perfume came in very large bottles. They were usually very cheap. But, do you know what? They usually didn't smell very good. Some of the other bottles of perfume were very small and cost a lot more than the big bottles of perfume. Guess what? they smelled wonderful! I wanted to give my mother the very best, so I always bought the most expensive perfume I could afford.

One day Jesus went to the city of Bethany. That was the city where a man named Lazarus, whom Jesus had raised from the dead, lived with his two sisters, Mary and Martha. While Jesus was in Bethany, a dinner was given in his honour. Lazarus was eating at the table with Jesus, while Martha was serving the meal. Mary was just sitting at the feet of Jesus listening to him teach. As she was sitting at the feet of Jesus, Mary did a very unusual thing. She took a bottle of very expensive perfume and began to wash the feet of Jesus with it. Then she dried his feet with her hair. The Bible tells us that the entire house was filled with the sweet smell of perfume.

One of Jesus' disciples, whose name was Judas, was very upset by what Mary did. He said, "What a waste! This perfume could have been sold and the money given to the poor. It was worth a year's wages." Judas wasn't really worried about the poor. The Bible tells us that he was worried about the money because he often stole money from the treasury for himself. Jesus came to Mary's defence and answered Judas. "Leave her alone. She has kept this perfume for the day of my burial."

Jesus said that because he knew that it was only a few days before he would be crucified and buried. I don’t know if Mary knew that or not, but I do think that Mary wanted to give Jesus the very best that she had to show her love for him. That perfume was the very best thing that Mary had to offer.

Jesus has given us the most wonderful gift imaginable â€” the gift of everlasting life. It is free, but it was a very costly gift. It cost Jesus his life.

What can we give to Jesus to show our love for him? I think he wants us to give him our very best. He wants us to give him our life!

Prayer 🙏

Heavenly Father, Jesus gave his life to show his love for us. May we also give our lives in service to him as an expression of our love. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.
A Most Precious Gift
Then Mary took a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus’ s feet and wiped his feet with her hair. John 12:3

First Holy Communion Candidates are invited to 11.15am Mass on Easter Sunday.
The story of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15: 1–3, 11–32) has an extraordinary amount of wisdom and good advice packed into it. Indeed, the more you read the bible, both Old and New Testament, the more you realise how relevant its words are for contemporary times. The prodigal Son fits well into the Season of Lent. It's hard to believe, that next week we find ourselves in Holy Week.

When we first read the story of the Prodigal Son we are charmed by how the wayward young man, after his years of wine, women and song, is welcomed back into his father's arms. The story is so well told you can actually see his father's jubilant excitement greeting his son as he makes his way home.

Instinctively we admire his dad. Our hearts go out to him for his spontaneous generosity in forgiving his errant son. If only more of us could find the heart and the courage to behave in such a manner. In many ways it's the perfect fairy-tale to read to children.

But then you realise that the parable has deeper layers of meaning. Did the Prodigal Son only return home because he had nowhere else to go? Did he cynically decide it was time to go home and enjoy his father's wealth once more? Perhaps he had no alternative but to come home if he wanted to save his own skin. Now the viewpoint changes and we see a clever opportunist and manipulative young man.

And then there's the dutiful stick-in-the-mud older son, who has spent his life doing all that has been asked of him. Doesn't he have a right to be annoyed when he sees his father giving all his attention to his younger brother and forgetting about his years of loyal service? Worse still, the fatted calf, which the older brother had reared, is now to be hijacked and used for the feast to celebrate the homecoming of his wayward brother.

Do we react like this in the 21st century? For example, we say we "allow" foreigners into our country, and no sooner have they landed at the airport, they are off to the nearest social welfare office to draw the dole. We have been working hard all our lives, paying our taxes and these foreigners arrive and the fatted calf is wheeled out for them.

And on it goes. The story of the prodigal Son provides a multi-layered insight into the lives we live in the developed world today.

Of course, we can get sentimental and talk about how wonderful the father is to forgive his son. But shouldn't we also ask ourselves how we can go on living in a world that allows a seventh of the population to starve, where the few have vast resources?

The parable of the Prodigal Son is a clarion call to all of us to realise that we have clichéd the message of Jesus out of existence, that we run a real risk of turning it into a cozy fireside tale, keeping us all content and smug in our ways. It suits us all, church and state, me too, to praise the wonderful and forgiving father.

But there is so much more to it. When we read Jesus life in the Gospel it's difficult to understand how some adherents to the Christian faith can be so smug. How can Christianity appeal in any way to people with far-right leanings? And yet the church attracts many such adherents, some of whom have yet to accept the true meaning of love, respect and humility. When critics presume to "correct" Pope Francis and accuse him of contradicting himself and preaching "heresy", are they really trying to make our faith, our religion, into a "comfort blanket" of simple, pious answers?

It's always dangerous to hijack one specific element of God's message at the expense of the overall picture. God's love, kindness and mercy are infinite. Once we try to find comfort in any one aspect of God's message at the expense of another, we risk losing the very meaning of God's perfect goodness.

This parable puts paid to the mushy sentimental ideas we have about forgiveness. Forgiveness makes demands of us which we - the faithful - may not ignore. Yes, the parable of the Prodigal Son is a delightful story but it is also a challenging reminder to us of the importance of embracing all the many aspects of our relationship with God.

Most importantly as we prepare to celebrate Holy Week we are called to build bridges not walls of prejudice and harsh judgements.

Breaking and Sharing:

The Communion Rite

This is the final part of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Within the Communion Rite we take part in the final two actions of BREAKING and SHARING.

At the beginning of the Rite, we stand with one another to pray the Our Father. This is the prayer that unites all Christians. As children of God we can ‘dare’ to call on our God in an intimate term of relationship – Father. Within this prayer we ask for our daily bread. Jesus is the Bread of Life who feeds our real hungers in a way physical bread never can.

And just as we ask God to forgive our sins, we declare in this prayer that we, too, will be people of forgiveness towards others.

Our care for others brings us to the Rite of Peace.

Here we actively pray for unity and the peace of Christ in our hearts, families, church, community and the whole human family. We demonstrate the authenticity of our prayer by physically sharing a Sign of Peace with one another. Our prayer is not just lip service; it must find expression in actions that mean what we pray. This is a powerful reminder to us of the call to be at peace with one another as we receive Holy Communion – the sacrament of unity. With whom do I need to make peace?

The singing, or saying, of the Lamb of God is accompanied by the action of BREAKING the consecrated Host so that it can be shared among us – just as Jesus did at the Last Supper. Jesus is our Lamb of God, the one who sacrificed himself for our salvation.

Before receiving Holy Communion, we kneel and Behold the Lamb of God, acknowledging the greatness of the gift we are about to receive and our unworthiness to receive it.

In the Procession with reception of Holy Communion we come forward, walking as people of faith. We underscore our unity with a shared hymn. We are a pilgrim people on our journey to God and this is a procession we do together. Here the ultimate nourishment for our journey is shared with us. The minister of Holy Communion makes a statement of faith to us: ‘The Body of Christ / The Blood of Christ’. And we affirm this faith in our response of ‘Amen’.

We are called to receive so great a gift with reverence and respect, conscious of what it is we are saying ‘Amen / yes’ to and then spending time in quiet prayer. How do I receive the Body of Christ at Mass?

We stand and conclude this part of the Mass with a Prayer after Communion, praying that this Communion will bear fruit in our daily lives.

“In each of our lives Jesus comes as the Bread of Life - to be eaten, to be consumed by us. This is how he loves us. Then Jesus comes into our human life – as the hungry one, the Other – hoping to be fed with the bread of our life; our hearts by loving, and our hands by serving.” (St Teresa of Calcutta)

“Nourished by the bread of life, we become a living Eucharist; in a word, we become what we receive.” (Pope Francis)
The Concluding Rites: The End is just the Beginning!
The purpose of the Concluding Rites is to send us out to put into effect what we have just celebrated! They are necessarily brief!
We have met Christ in one another; we have listened to God speaking to us today and we have received the Body of Christ into our very selves. Now we have to go from here and be the Body of Christ. Now we have to go and give witness in our lives to the faith we have expressed and deepened.
So, the end is truly the beginning—we are not just dismissed, we are sent! Each one of us is sent with a purpose, a mission. Our mission is to be the face, heart and hands of Christ for others in the individual life we find ourselves.
What we have celebrated in the Mass now must find an echo in how we are in our homes, workplaces, schools and community.

“Each of us is truly called, together with Jesus, to be bread broken for the life of the world.”
(Pope Benedict)

Exploring the Concluding Rites
* Brief Announcements: We begin to make our transition from this sacred place with brief notices, perhaps highlighting key events and opportunities in the parish in the week ahead.
* Greeting and blessing: The greeting, ‘The Lord be with you’, is a timely reminder that, as we leave, we go with Christ—we are not alone in our endeavours. And we go with the blessing of God upon us. God continues to be our strength and source of life. Our last action is to mark ourselves with the Sign of the Cross, the sign of our faith. This is the faith we live not just for a few minutes on a Sunday but in every moment.
* Dismissal: There is a choice of four alternative dismissals that can be used. Each of them is intended to express the missionary nature of what it is to be a member of the Church. We go in order to do...
* People’s Response: Our ‘Thanks be to God’ is a final statement of praise and thanks for meeting and being with Christ in this celebration of the Mass.
* Closing Procession: The procession of priest and ministers serves to lead the assembly out of the worship space. While no music is prescribed, a hymn that speaks of mission and Christian action can help strengthen our sense of going out and living what we have celebrated.

In Memory of a Special Little Girl

God knows how much we need them and so He takes but few, to make the land of Heaven, more beautiful to view.

Believing this is difficult, still somehow we must try, the saddest word mankind knows will always be “goodbye”.

So when this little child departs, we who are left behind, must realise God needed her because precious angels are so hard to find.

JOHN GING
Mountrath Road, Portlaoise.

John Ging’s wife Phyllis, his seven children, his brothers and sisters would like to express their sincere gratitude to all those who supported Daddy during his short illness. Sincere thanks for the beautiful Mass bouquets and prayers people offered up for him. He was so moved by them all.

We would sincerely like to thank Mr Justin Geoghan and the fantastic staff at St. Vincent’s Private Hospital, Dr. Horan and staff, Roisin Adams and her staff. Thank you all for your dedication, loyalty and compassion when it came to looking after our beloved father.

We would like to offer a very special word of thanks to all those who travelled long distances to attend Daddy’s funeral, and to all who queued in the cold, wind and rain to pay their respects at our home. To see such huge numbers was both humbling and poignant but it lifted our spirits. To all Daddy’s colleagues and former colleagues from Laois County Council and Portlaoise Fire service; your beautiful tributes and guard of honour were appreciated beyond words. To our wonderful friends and neighbours to whom we are indebted, especially Sinead and Declan Leonard, Fergus and Margaret Dempsey, The McEvoy family and to the many generous people who provided food and provisions to the house. Thank you all so much.

To Mr. Shaw for allowing the use of Centrepiece Car Park. It was much appreciated.

Thank you to Msgr. Byrne and the Priests of Portlaoise Parish for the beautiful, dignified Mass and comforting words, also to the choir who sang beautifully at the funeral Mass. To those who helped in anyway; sent flowers, Mass cards and letters, your contributions did not go unnoticed and will always be remembered.

Our sincere gratitude for the professional and compassionate guidance of Matthew Keegan funeral Directors and the grave diggers.

As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our deepest gratitude. The Holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for your intentions.

“What wisdom can you find that is greater than kindness”
