A Father's Day Blessing

Lord, God, you are our Father and the source of all fatherhood.

Bless all fathers especially those gathered here.

May their fatherhood reflect yours.

May they offer wise guidance and sound example to their children.

May they be patient and kind.

Bless them in times of difficulty of uncertainty.

Give them a strong and lively faith with their children.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers!

Mysteries of Faith

In Jesus' farewell to his disciples he says, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth." It is clear that Jesus is teaching his disciples in stages. Like every good teacher, Jesus knows that we can only digest so much information at a time. The original disciples had to learn to walk before they could run, and that goes for us too.

We are all at different stages in our journey of faith, but that journey should never become static. "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now." Jesus implies that we will be ready to learn more at some future date and he is leaving us the Spirit of truth to guide us towards revelation. In the face of great mysteries, it is tempting to give up and leave theology to the great academics; but we are reminded that God has revealed truth to all sorts of people from small children to acclaimed philosophers, and from simple fishermen to learned theologians.

God is a sympathetic teacher, but we have to play our part and be willing students. As adults it isn't good enough to rely on the faith we developed at school. There was nothing wrong with the faith we were given as youngsters of course, but it's time to develop our thinking and stretch our understanding. In an age of improved communications, discussion groups, television, competitive publishing and the internet, there's not much excuse for us to cease growing in intellect or spirituality.

The Gospel in a Nutshell

Suppose that you wanted to tell your best friend about God's love. What would you say? Everything you need to know about God's love is in the Bible. You could take your Bible and go to your friend's house and read about God's love from the Bible. Let's see, what should you read? The Bible is divided into the Old Testament and the New Testament, sixty-six books, 1189 chapters, and 31,173 verses. That is a little bit scary isn't it? It would be easy for you to get lost and confused. What if we could shrink the message of God's love down so small that it could fit inside this nutshell? That would be great, wouldn't it? Well, I think we can do that this morning.

I did a search on my computer for the top 10 verses in the Bible. I searched for the top ten verses that people know, love, and read the most often. Can you guess what the number one verse is? John 3:16! How many of you can say that verse with me? "For God so loved the world that he have his only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." That is good news, isn't it? That is everything you need to know about God's love. Now let's take a closer look at what this verse tells us.

Who is this verse about? - God

What does God do? - loves

Who does God love? - the world (that includes you and me)

What did God do to show his love? - gave his one and only Son

What must we do in return? - believe that Jesus is the Son of God

What is our reward? - eternal life

The Bible is full of the promises of God's love. You and I should be ready to share those promises with our friends. We should read our Bible daily and study to learn more about it, but when it comes time to share God's love, remember the "Gospel in a Nutshell" that we studied this morning. It is a message that the whole world needs to hear.

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son."

Our Father, we thank you for your love — a love so great that you gave your one and only Son so that we could have eternal life. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

TIME TO THINK!

GOD'S DREAM

We can wait no longer. Martin Luther King's Letter to White Church Leaders;

In 1960, Martin Luther King was imprisoned after leading a civil rights march. His dream seemed a long way off. Criticised by white church leaders, he responded with his famous "Letter from an Alabama Jail", which included this section:

We have waited for more than 340 years for our constitutional and God given rights. The nations of Asia and Africa are moving with jet like speed toward gaining political independence, but we still creep at horse and buggy pace toward gaining a cup of coffee at a lunch counter. Perhaps it is easy for those who have never felt the stinging darts of segregation to say, "Wait." But when you have seen vicious mobs lynch your mothers and fathers at will and drown your sisters and brothers at whim; when you have seen hate filled policemen curse, kick and even kill your black brothers and sisters; when you see the vast majority of your twenty million Negro brothers smothering in an airtight cage of poverty in the midst of an affluent society; when you suddenly find your tongue twisted and your speech stammering as you seek to explain to your six year old daughter why she can't go to the public amusement park that has just been advertised on television, and see tears welling up in her eyes when she is told that Funtown is closed to coloured children, and see ominous clouds of inferiority beginning to form in her little mental sky, and see her beginning to distort her personality by developing an unconscious bitterness toward white people; when you have to concoct an answer for a five year old son who is asking: "Daddy, why do white people treat coloured people so mean?"; when you take a cross county drive and find it necessary to sleep night after night in the uncomfortable corners of your automobile because no motel will accept you; when you are humiliated day in and day out by nagging signs reading "white" and "coloured"; when your first name becomes "nigger," your middle name becomes "boy" (however old you are) and your last name becomes "John," and your wife and mother are never given the respected title "Mrs."; when you are harried by day and haunted by night by the fact that you are a Negro, living constantly at tiptoe stance, never quite knowing what to expect next, and are plagued with inner fears and outer resentments; when you are forever fighting a degenerating sense of "nobodiness"—then you will understand why we find it difficult to wait. There comes a time when the cup of endurance runs over, and men are no longer willing to be plunged into the abyss of despair.

Faced with injustices like these, it would be understandable if King had become stuck in "the abyss of despair". His letter oozes a compassion for the suffering of his fellow African-Americans and a smouldering anger at the injustices heaped upon them. But his movement aroused violent opposition. Even the white church, which he had hoped would side with his cause, opposed what he was doing. At times the challenge must have seemed too big, the forces of oppression too powerful, and the future fated to be an endless rerun of the past.

But to his compassion and anger King added hope. He was convinced that his dream was in fact God's dream; that God too had.

An Inspirational Prayer

Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either He will shield you from suffering, or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it.

Be at peace, then.

Put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations, and say continually; "The Lord is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in Him and I am helped. He is not only with me but in me, and I in Him."

In Loving Memory of
A Cherished Husband, Father and Grandfather
WILLIAM (Willie) O' REILLY

28 Lakeglen, Portlaoise. 2nd Father's Day away from home - 16th June 2019.

Husband;

Sometimes I just sit quietly, reflecting for awhile,
Imagining your voice, your face, your warm and loving smile,
For it's so lovely to recall the happy times we had,
When you played such a special role as both husband and a dad,
And at this very special time I only wish you knew, that I'd give all the world today for one more hour with you,
But I still have my memories and since we've been apart, it comforts me so much to know that you're right here in my heart.

Forever loved, sadly missed and always in my heart.

Happy Father's Day Willie.

Your Loving Wife Anne xxx

Daddy;

Thinking of you and missing you on this your special day, wishing we'd said all the things we never got to say,
Because it seemed we took your love for granted and that we truly know, we only wish we told you, how much we loved you so,
For if we ever needed you, you'd never turn your back, you'd pick us up each time we'd fall and put us back on track,
And since you've gone, we miss you so and realise what we had, a parent with a heart of gold;
The World's most special Dad.

You were someone who meant so very much and were loved by all you knew,
You left behind a trail of tears and precious memories too,
We loved the sunshine in your smile and the kindness in your heart, but Heaven saw that you were getting tired, which meant we had to part,
And now that it's your special day, Dear Angels hear our prayer,
Please guard our Daddy, with your wings and tend him with great care,
For he was someone wonderful and words just can't convey, how much we wish that he was here once more,
with us today.

Always remembered today and everyday. You are never more than a thought away.

Happy Father's Day Daddy.

Alan, Michael, Thomas, Lisa, Nicola, Jenny, Trevor, Becky, daughters-in-law, Mary, Fiona, Sara, Nicole and son-in-law Trevor xxx

Grandad;

No one else could make us laugh, the way you used to do, you'd care for us, be there for us and calm our worries too,
For you were really special with a kind and caring way, you'd always be so helpful and have something wise to say,
Now that Father's Day is here, this special message brings love and heartfelt thanks for doing all those caring things,
And just for simply being you, for no one else could be as wonderful as you were to all the family,
And on this your very special day, it's sad to say but true, that our lives have changed forever grandad, since we said goodbye to you.

Always remembered now and always. Happy Father's Day Grandad.

Leona, Joanne, Megan, Avril, Katie, Billy, Dylan, Sarah, Aimee, Leah, Abbey, Jayden, Sean, Carly, Braidan, Caoimhe, Óisín and Maisie and baby Noah-Alan xxx

Fathers Day Remembrance

In Loving Memory of our Daddy

KENNETH (Ken) CLEAR

44 O' Moore Place, Portlaoise.

6th Father's Day away from home - 16th June 2019.

The pain that we are feeling never seems to go away,
We wish we could visit Heaven, if only for a day,
We know that you would hold us and whisper in our ears; "Don't think of me as gone away, because I am always here".

We know you're in a better place where you are at peace and free,

To be happy in eternal life and still watch over us,
Although the door between our worlds is closed and we're apart, until the time God opens it, you're always in our hearts.

We love and miss you Daddy and though you've passed away, you'll never be forgotten for we think of you everyday.

Happy Father's Day Daddy

Forever in our thoughts.

Lots of love Becky and Dylan xx

In Loving Memory Dad

On Father's Day

*The day you left and gained your wings my heart just broke in two
I wish you could have stayed with me
But Heaven needed you*

*You left me with the memories
And I love you dearly still
No matter how much time goes by
You know I always will*

*You were a very special person
With kindness in your heart
And the love we had together
Grows stronger now we're apart*

*I know I cannot bring you back
Although I wish it everyday
But a piece of me went with you
The day you went away*

In Loving Memory of

Our Dearest Mam & Grandmother

JANE McEVOY

22 Rossvale, Portlaoise. (15th Anniversary)

Also a very special Birthday wish for her and Happy Father's Day to our Dad.

*They are our bridge
over troubled water,
The wind beneath
our wings,
And now our loving
parents, are a candle
in the wind.*

The flowers we place upon your grave will wither and decay,

But the love we buried with you both, will never fade away.

Love you both forever, your loving family.

Rest in Peace Mam and Dad

*My dad is not here,
but he is watching from Heaven.*
