Where Else Should We Go?

Jesus tells us that he is the bread of life, that he provides the only food which truly nourishes, that he gives us his own self to sustain us on our journey, that we are to eat his flesh and blood in order to abide in him. For many of Jesus' disciples this was just too hard to understand and they walked away.

It would be too easy for us to write these lapsed disciples off as fools, as lacking in faith, or as lazy and stupid. We have to remember that up until this point, these men and women had been faithful disciples. To have found a stumbling block too great to overcome must have been a sad and painful moment for them. It would have been interesting to know how many of them might have returned to Jesus at a later date, or how the lapsed had found an alternative way to fulfilment. The real point is that the stumbling block that finally proved too great for those early disciples could face any one of us, and what we need to address, is how we as disciples should cope with the same kind of difficulty.

Key to loyal discipleship is to ask what made Peter and his fellow disciples different from the ones that gave up. They were just as human as the others; they probably had just as many doubts as the others and no more in the way of courage or intellect. The answer has to lie in Peter's simple, "Lord, to whom shall we go?" The 'twelve' might have struggled with doubts and understanding, but they never doubted where they should be looking for answers. Quite simply, they didn't take their eye off the ball. They knew that they should trust Jesus even if some of his teachings were over their heads.

Every day we are faced with the same decisions. Do we follow Jesus' blueprint for living exemplary lives? Do we look to Jesus as the Son of God and the key to eternal life? Do we join in Holy Communion believing in Jesus' real presence.... or do we turn our backs and look for answers somewhere else?

The Last Supper

People have a lot of ways to help them remember things.

One of the oldest memory tricks is a simple piece of string.

If you want to remember something, tie a piece of string around your finger. Then, every time you look at your finger and see that string, it will remind you of what it was you wanted to remember.

Another method people use is to use post-it notes. Simply write what it was you need to remember and stick it on the mirror in the bathroom, or, perhaps on the refrigerator. Then, every morning when you are getting ready to go to school, or whenever you go to the refrigerator for a drink or a snack, you will see the reminder.

In today's Gospel, Jesus and his disciples gathered together to celebrate the Festival of the Unleavened Bread. As they were eating, Jesus took some bread, blessed it, and broke it into pieces and gave it to his disciples. He said, "Take it and eat, for this is my body."

Next, Jesus took a cup of wine and gave thanks. Then he said, "This is my blood of the covenant." All of the disciples drank from the cup.

Ever since that day, the followers of Jesus have followed the example given in the Scriptures. Some call it Communion, others call it the Lord's Supper, and others, the Eucharist. Whatever we call it, we do it to help us to remember that Jesus gave his body and shed his blood in death on the cross so that we might have eternal life in heaven with him. What a beautiful reminder for you and me.

Father, we thank you for Jesus and for the salvation we have because of his death on the cross. As we partake of the bread and wine, help us to remember his sacrifice.

In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

TIME TO THINK!

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

In 1263 a German priest, Fr. Peter of Prague, made a pilgrimage to Rome. He stopped in Bolsena, Italy, to celebrate Mass at the Church of St. Christina. At the time he was having doubts about Jesus being truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. He was affected by the growing debate among certain theologians who, for the first time in the history of the Church, began introducing doubts about the Body and Blood of Christ being actually present in the consecrated bread and wine. In response to his doubt, when he recited the prayer of consecration as he celebrated the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, blood started seeping from the consecrated host and onto the altar and corporal.

Fr. Peter reported this miracle to Pope Urban IV, who at the time was nearby in Orvieto. The pope sent delegates to investigate and ordered that host and blood-stained corporal be brought to Orvieto. The relics were then placed in the Cathedral of Orvieto, where they remain today.

In the Gospels there are plenty of times when Jesus is with people eating and drinking and this week's Gospel is no exception. As always, Jesus is concerned with people and their real needs. They are hungry, so he feeds them. He is gracious in his abundant giving. But he feeds them not only with food; he also feeds them at a much deeper level. He teaches them, he welcomes them and he heals them. He treats us the same way; when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus welcomes us, he speaks to us and through his Body and Blood, we are nourished and we are healed.

The Eucharist is God's greatest gifts to us. But it is not our right and we cannot demand it. Pope Francis reminds us of this when he says, 'the Eucharist is not a prize for the perfect, but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak.' That's all of us and each of us!

This Sunday, we are not only celebrating receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, we are called to remember that we are the Body of Christ, the Church. As St. Paul reminds us, 'Now Christ's body is yourselves and each of you with a part to play in the whole.' (1 Cor. 12.27). Today reminds & challenges us to realise that we are the living Church, the Body of Christ, whose head is Jesus himself. Through our communion with Jesus and each other we are called to be living stones making a spiritual house.

St. Augustine, the great church writer said, 'become what you receive.' If we celebrate the Eucharist with each other and receive the Body and Blood of Christ, then we are called to be the Body of Christ, the Church today. And we are asked to be a missionary church. At the end of every celebration of the Eucharist we are sent out with this great prayer of mission, let us go now to love and serve the Lord. If we share in the gift of Jesus' Body and Blood, then we are also asked to share this with others when we leave the church. Today on this wonderful feast, may each of us be fed, nourished and healed through the Body and Blood of Christ.

Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend me.

That with your saints I may praise you
For ever and ever.

by St. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE, prayed daily by St. Padre Pio

Celebrated each June on the Friday following the second Sunday after Pentecost

O HEART of Love, I put all my trust in Thee, for I fear all things from my own weakness, but I hope for all things from Thy goodness, Amen. (St. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE)

O my Jesus, you have said, "Truly I say to you, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and it will be opened to you." Behold I knock, I seek and ask for the grace of.....(here name your request).

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be to the Father...

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

O my Jesus, you have said, "Truly I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you." Behold, in your name, I ask the Father for the grace of..... (here name your request).

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be to the Father...

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

O my Jesus, you have said, "Truly I say to you, heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away." Encouraged by your infallible words I now ask for the grace of...(here name your request).

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be to the Father...

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, for whom it is impossible not to have compassion on the afflicted, have pity on us miserable sinners and grant us the grace which we ask of you, through the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, your tender Mother and ours.

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy!
our life, our sweetness and our hope.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve, to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus;

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ,
Amen.

St. Joseph, foster father of Jesus,
pray for us.

Sacred Heart of Mary

Pray for us.
