The Truth the Whole Truth and Nothing But the Truth

A television interviewer tries to elicit the truth from a politician. We recognise of old the politician's strategies for avoiding the interviewer's questions. We are called to do jury service and determine to get to the bottom of the case, but suddenly everyone's version of events is slightly different. We pick up on a charged atmosphere at home, but when we quiz our children we are met with evasion and equivocation. There are those who live or work in situations that are deeply flawed, but refuse to admit the truth because admitting the truth would be too painful or difficult to remedy. Truth is slippery.

The opposite of truth is not always a lie. Truth can be avoided, twisted, disguised, or simply not recognised. One thing is for sure though; we all have some kind of sixth sense for knowing when we are not getting the truth. That's why it's so refreshing and so powerful when somebody gets up and speaks a simple truth from the heart. The truth makes us sit up and listen. Perhaps this is what Jesus meant when he told Pilate, "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Standing in front of Pilate, Jesus doesn't back down or compromise the truth because the truth is too important. The trouble with earthly kingdoms is that the truth is not always of paramount importance. In earthly kingdoms the truth gets in the way of our personal agendas. In our quest for territory, power, resources and a comfortable life style, the truth takes second place. We might think that we are truthful people and that we never tell lies, but it is all too easy to live a lie without admitting it even to ourselves. Pilate was not able to understand the kingdom Jesus alluded to, and he was not able to see Jesus as king. Pilate failed to recognise the truth.

Today's challenge is to recognise truth in all of life's circumstance, to stand up for the truth in all of life's difficulties, and to live by the truth to the best of our ability.

Saint Cecilia

So you think you're tone deaf?

22nd November.

How many church goers sit silently through Mass not venturing to sing a note? How many church goers have been put off singing from a very young age by a thoughtless teacher or the careless remarks of a parent? There are very many adults who laughingly confess to being 'tone deaf', because someone has led them to believe this to be true. In fact, there are very few who are genuinely tone deaf, the rest of us have voices that we could readily develop and intonation that we could quickly improve with a bit of practice. On this the Feast of Saint Cecilia, patron saint of music, we are invited to fully participate in the liturgy by lifting our voices in song.

Masses for the Dead List will be celebrated on:

Monday at 7.30am, Wednesday at 7.30pm
and Friday at 7.30am.

We welcome into our Parish Community

Closure of Cuisle Fayre, Portlaoise

On behalf of the board of directors, management and staff of the Cuisle Cancer Support Centre, we would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to all the wonderful people who helped in the running of the Cuisle Fayre Charity Shop. A sincere thank you to all those who gave up their time to help out in any small way and to those who donated items to the shop through the years. A special thank you to everyone who purchased items in the shop which in turn helped support the running costs of the centre. Unfortunately, the Cuisle Fayre is no longer trading and the shop is now closed.

In 2016, Sheila Whelan was working as a volunteer at the Cuisle Cancer Support Centre. She began Cuisle Fayre, as a fund-raising idea to help contribute to the centre funds. Many others joined her and remained a stalwart support to her throughout the years. Sheila sadly passed away this year and her presence will be greatly missed. (RIP) We wish to convey our condolences to Sheila's husband John, her son Seamus, her daughters, Sharon, Nicolai, and Siobhán and to her extended family.

If you or anyone you know has been affected by a cancer diagnosis, please contact the centre on 057-8681492. All our services are free of charge and we are here to help.

CROWN HIM KING!

The crown is a symbol of power and authority. Who wears a crown? That's right! A king or queen wears a crown. Being a king is different from being the president of a country. A president is elected by the people, but a king is not elected, he is born to be king.

Have you seen the movie "Lion King?" As a lion, Simba was born to be the "King of the Beasts." In one scene from the movie Simba sings, "I Just Can't Wait to Be King." If you have seen the movie, you will remember that one reason why Simba was so anxious to become king was that he didn't want anyone telling him what to do. He didn't want to hear anyone saying, "do this" or "stop that." He wanted to be free to run around all day doing everything his way.

It wasn't just that Simba didn't want anyone to tell him what to do, he was also looking forward to telling everyone else what to do. Just listen to what he says! "I'm gonna be a mighty king so enemies beware! I'm gonna be the mane event like no king was before.

I'm brushing up on looking down. I'm working on my ROAR! Oh, I just can't wait to be king!"

I think that Simba had a very poor idea of what it means to be a king. You see, the real role of a king is to look after the needs of his people. A good king is more concerned with caring for his people than he is in being served.

During his last days on earth, Jesus was arrested and put on trial. When asked if he was a king, Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world." Yes, Jesus was a king, but he wasn't interested in running around free and doing things his way. He was only interested in doing the will of his Father. He was born to be king, but his kingdom is not on this earth - it is in heaven. He only came to earth to make a way for us to live with him in heaven. Jesus "Just can't wait to be your king." He has invited you to enjoy eternal life in his heavenly kingdom. If you haven't already accepted his invitation, I hope you will crown him as your King today.

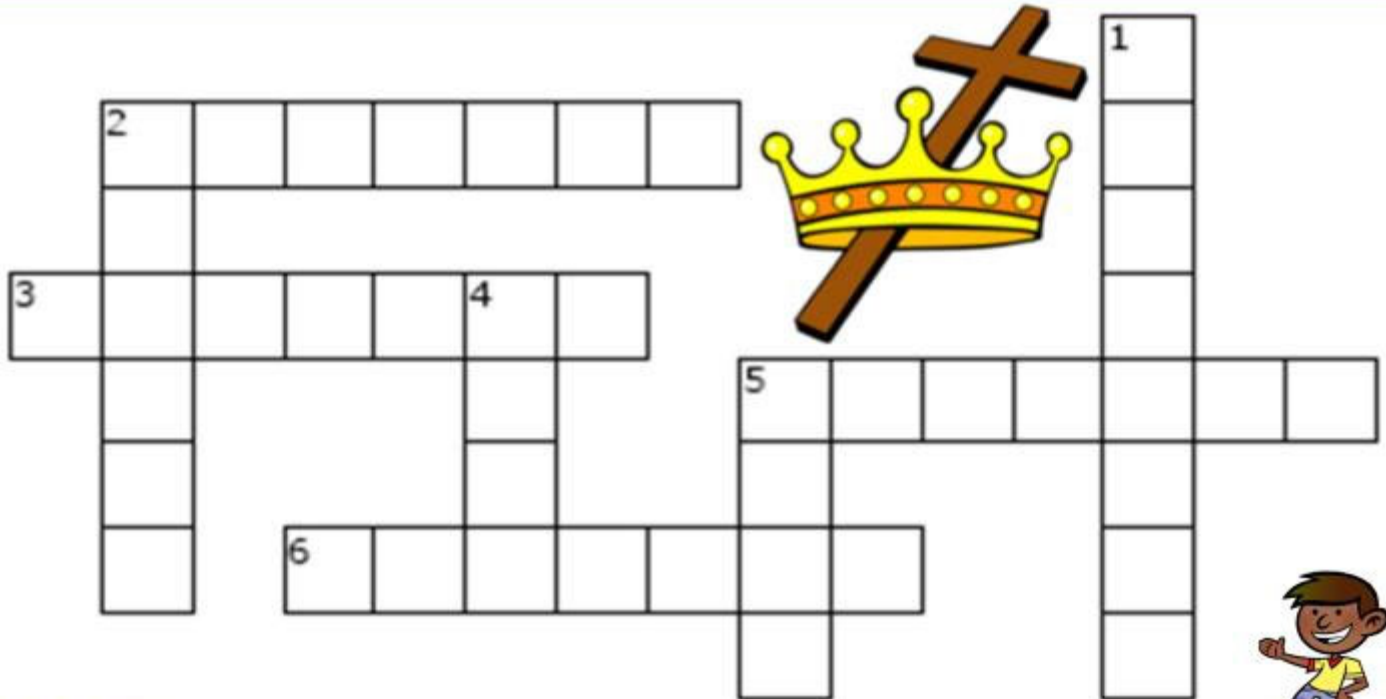

Heavenly Father, we thank you for sending your Son to be our Lord and King. Help us today, and every day, to honour him, obey him, and follow his will for our life. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Christ the King

"You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me." John 18:37

TIME TO THINK!

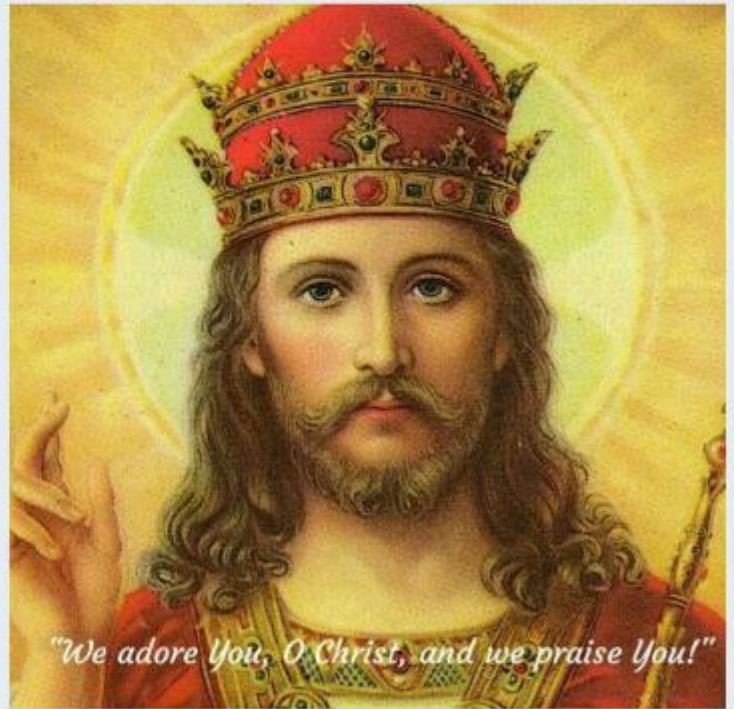

CHRIST THE KING

This week, we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, we are called to work with this King. And this King is the one who dies on the cross, rises from the dead, and is with his people. And what then is expected of us?

A google search for images of Christ the King adds pictures that look very much like St. Louis, King of France - and many more. If we take them seriously, true icons lead us to contemplate the mystery of Christ, others may trivialise him or even seem heretical. What do we celebrate on this last Sunday of the Church year? The feast called the Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe is less than a century old, a very recent addition in light of our 2,000-year history. Pope Pius XI said he established this feast in 1925 to combat the rise of secularism and nationalism. Although the name sounds ostentatious, the Gospels convey a distinctly different tone.

Luke's Gospel doesn't refer to Jesus as a King until the time of his passion. Then Luke tells us that when Jesus made his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, the crowd on that day cried out, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!" and soon thereafter shouted, "Crucify him!" Jesus avoided claiming the designation for himself when Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" At the crucifixion, his executioners turned the title into a way to mock him. Luke's way of using the term indicates that if we want to think of Christ as a King, we must allow Jesus' own actions to define the meaning of his kingship. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus exercises his sovereignty by pardoning his persecutors and offering a place in his kingdom to a condemned criminal. He demonstrates his intimate relationship with God through the filial obedience of saying, "Not my will, but yours be done." Jesus exhibited his invincibility by accepting death with unshakable faith in the Father's power to give life. In other words, Jesus lived up to the title placed over his head by redefining kingship, revealing what it looks like in the divine realm rather than in the world of politics and power.

As we celebrate this feast, the Gospels prod us to examine how seriously we want to take it. Paul not only called Christ the image of the invisible God, but also said that God has made us fit to participate in his kingdom. It is our choice. Jesus' life reveals that obedience is the way to share in divine life. Jesus' practice of forgiveness shows us how to live in true freedom. His passion and death reveal what God's power is like. Christ the King offers us a model of grace, liberty and unfathomable love. Christian art is graphic theology.

The Christian community makes theology experiential. The life of the baptised can never be neutral. We who pray, "Thy kingdom come," are always presenting an image of Christ to the world. Our history is replete with heretical dominating images that mirror the power structures of our world. Our call is to create communities that provide true icons of Christ's kingship expressed through the grace of God's reconciling love and life-giving power.

I would like to close this with a message from Mother Teresa. And it tells us what real authority is; and what we, as followers of Jesus, should follow in the authority of love; what we ourselves should become if we are forever to touch the Kingdom of God. Because God is love, and unless we learn to love as Jesus loves, we will never touch God.

Here is what Mother Teresa says:

"Many today are starving for ordinary bread, but there is another kind of hunger - the hunger to be wanted, the hunger to be loved, the hunger to be recognised. Nakedness too is not just the want of clothes, but also about loss of dignity, purity, and self-respect. And homelessness is not just want of a house; there is the homelessness of being rejected, of being unwanted in a throwaway society. The biggest disease in the world today is the feeling of being unwanted and uncared for. The greatest evil in the world is lack of love, the terrible indifference towards one's neighbour. Lord, warm our cold hearts with your grace, so that we your disciples may produce the fruits of love as you have taught us and with this love we shall overcome the world."

May Joseph Rest in Peace

In Loving Memory of WILLIE LYNCH

St. Brigid's Place, Portlaoise.
Months Mind occurs at this time.

Months Mind Mass will be celebrated in Sts. Peter & Paul's Parish Church, this Saturday 20th November at 6:30pm.

*I watch you every day,
I'm always very near,
I know deep in your heart,
You realise I am here.
I watch you while you sleep in your bed at home,*

*I hear you when you speak to me, when you're on your own.
You cannot understand the reason why I have gone,
But I will never leave you,*

I'm always there to keep you strong.

*Talk to me, I hear you, though you may not see,
We share an unbroken bond that will always be.
Death won't keep us apart, for our love is forever,
Just remember me in your heart,
And one day we will be together.*

*Live your life and live it full, don't waste a single day,
Remember I'm always with you, every step of the way.*

Sadly missed, loved and forever remembered by his loving wife, children, grandchildren, mother, brothers, sisters and extended family and friends.

Rest in Peace Willie

BIRTHDAY REMEMBRANCE

*Of my Precious Son
DANIEL (Danny) WHELAN
26th Birthday occurs 16th November 2021*

For Danny, a very young man of only 18, who left us too soon, for his wild spirit and that smile on his face.

WE THANK YOU LORD.

For his sense of fun, for the young man he was, for the special brother he was, For the affectionate, kind and loving son he was and for all the efforts he made with trying to change,

For Danny boy who left everyone too soon and probably would find it hard to believe how much he meant to so many,

For Danny the man who had a long life and a good life ahead of him but didn't dare to believe it.

WE THANK YOU LORD.

Dear God, thank you for our son, who meant so much to so many and has now gone to his Eternal "Home" for ever-lasting peace. We will love and cherish you and your beautiful memories forever my darling boy.

Forever in our hearts.

So sadly missed and forever loved by your loving Mother Chris, Mick, brothers, sister, nephews, nieces and extended family.

May Danny's Soul Rest in Peace with all our Heavenly Angels above

Remembering your loved ones at Christmas

We have now begun taking Christmas Remembrances and Anniversaries for our Christmas edition.

The deadline to submit notices will be 12 noon Wednesday 15th December.

Owing to the large volume of notices received, we would ask that notices are submitted as early as possible.

If you have previously placed a notice with us and would like to repeat the same notice, you can call the office, 057-8692154 and we can assist you with this over the phone.

For all new anniversaries or remembrances we request that preferably these are submitted via e-mail with a photo to linkup@portlaoiseparish.ie to limit face-to-face contact.

If this is not possible and you wish to submit a written notice, we ask that all notices are fully written out prior to arriving at the office to avoid delays and adhere to Covid guidelines.

Thank you for your patience, understanding and co-operation with the above procedures.
