NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

The Pharisee & the Tax Collector

Have you ever known someone who thought they were much better than everyone else and deserved special treatment? Dr. Seuss wrote a story about a turtle who was like that. Perhaps you have read the story. The title of the story is "Yertle the Turtle."

Yertle was ruler of a little pond on the island of Sala-ma-Sond. All of the turtles at the pond had everything they needed and were quite happy. They were happy, that is, until Yertle decided that his kingdom was too small. "I am ruler of all that I see, but I don't see enough. My throne is too low down" complained Yertle.

So Yertle lifted his hand and gave a command. He ordered nine turtles in the pond to stand on each other's backs so that they could become his new and higher throne. He climbed up onto the backs of the turtles and he had a wonderful view. But Yertle still wasn't satisfied. "Turtles! More turtles!" he called from his lofty throne, Yertle swelled with pride and feelings of importance as turtles from all over the pond came to climb on the stack of turtles which made up Yertle's throne.

At the very bottom of the stack was a plain and ordinary turtle named Mack. He struggled under the weight of all the turtles until finally, he decided that he had taken enough. That plain little turtle named Mack did a very plain little thing. He burped! His burp shook the throne and Yertle fell right into the mud! And now the great Yertle is King of the MUD.

When you think too highly of yourself, you often wind up taking a big fall, don't you?

In our Gospel today, Jesus tells a story about a man who thought he was better than everyone else. In the story that Jesus told, two men went to the temple to pray. One of the men was a Pharisee, a religious group that was very strict in obeying the law of Moses. The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself: "I thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like everyone else. I don't cheat, I don't sin, and I'm certainly not like that tax collector over there! I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of all my income."

The tax collector stood at a distance and would not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he bowed his head in sorrow, saying, "Oh God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner."

Now, which of these two prayers do you think was pleasing to God? You are right. The prayer of the tax collector. Jesus said, "The tax collector, not the Pharisee returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, but those who humble themselves will be exalted."

When we are tempted to brag about ourselves, we need to remember that other people are not impressed - and neither is God!

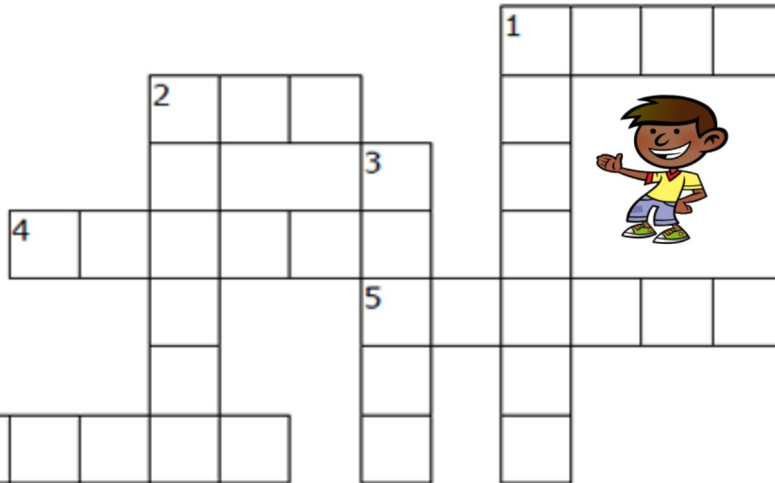

My Prayer

Dear Father, we pray that you would help us to remain humble so that we would not think more highly of ourselves than we ought. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The Pharisee & The Tax Collector

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

Time to Think!

I WAS HUNGRY AND YOU GAVE ME FOOD ...

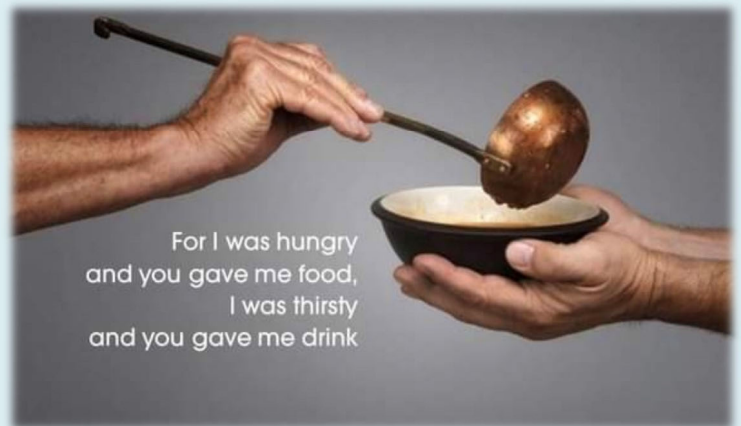

Hunger is a problem that has plagued humanity for millennia, and it continues to haunt us. The United Nations and World Food Programme 2021 report, projected that between 720 and 811 million people in the world face starvation. Nearly one in 10 people in the world go to bed hungry each night.

There are at least 350,000 children under five years of age in Somalia dying in the most brutal circumstances. They are slowly dying, from lack of food, from starvation. The United Nations is warning that 6.7 million people will need food aid in Somalia in the coming months - about 40% of the population. The reasons for such a crisis are many, with climate change and conflict the main driver. The impact of war in Ukraine on food supply and prices is also a factor.

This is an extreme drought, the worst in Somalia in over four decades, the worst in living memory. It is deeper, longer, and more severe than previous drought episodes and, frighteningly, a fifth and even sixth consecutive drought is now being predicated. Trocaire together with other humanitarian agencies have been sounding the alert on this crisis since 2021. The response from major donors has been too slow, and too late for many.

The international aid community working on the ground in Somalia fear that even if famine isn't formally declared, the current hunger crisis will claim more lives than the 260,000 who perished during the famine in 2011. We simply cannot wait for famine to be declared to act as it will be too late to save precious lives. More than one million people have already been forced to leave their parched lands and dead livestock in search of life saving assistance, their way of life lost and their dignity taken away. Children, already weakened by months of hunger, are dying on the tortuous journeys from their homes to internally displaced camps that have sprung up on the margins of urban centres. They are buried by their parents in shallow graves on the side of dusty roads.

In 2011, before famine was officially declared in Somalia, over 100,000 people had already died of starvation. Another 150,000 died in the weeks and months following the famine declaration. After that famine, the global community said 'Never Again', with governments and the UN promising the resources needed to mount a response. But we have failed. We have ignored any lessons from the past and allowed people to suffer. We in the Global North cannot excuse ourselves. The suffering caused by climate change in Somalia is in large part due to our lifestyles and our extractive relationship with this planet. The reality is that it is countries like Somalia that have contributed least to climate change who are impacted most.

Trocaire currently provides critical health and nutritional services to more than 240,000 people in Gedo in southern Somalia. They like many humanitarian agencies have seen demand for our services treble in recent months. Such are doing what they can with resources available, but more needs to be done to save hundreds of thousands of lives. There is a critical need to invest in resilience, livelihoods, infrastructure development (such as health systems), climate adaptation and durable solutions that could perhaps provide a pathway for averting such crises in the future. Surely to God we have learned the lessons from the past and can, together with local organisations, do better.

It is heartening to hear that the Irish Government has pledged a further €30 million to the crisis in East Africa. It is a step in the right direction and an example to other nations to step up their response, too. However, Ireland's commitment of 0.7% of GNI to Overseas Development Assistance still remains a dream. It is currently at 0.32%. This is an apocalypse that the Irish faced one hundred and fifty years ago during the Great Famine. The Irish public are imbued with a deep sense of compassion. They have, over many decades, responded to such horrors with compassion and solidarity. We need to do more, not to give too little, too late.

Almighty God, it is difficult to see children suffer, especially from hunger. We pray for You to give the hungry daily bread today (Matthew 6:11) and end their persistent hunger. Provide the food they need to grow and thrive. Pour out Your grace on hungry families, especially parents straining to feed their children despite dwindling resources.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In Loving Memory of MAURA LOUGHLIN

144 St. Brigid's Place, Portlaoise.

On 21st February 2022 our hearts were forever broken on the occasion of the passing of our wonderful Mam Maura. We will be forever grateful to so many of you who called to our home, sent Mass cards and floral tributes and spoke so highly of Mam's kindness to so many of you. There are too many to mention, but know that it has been a great comfort to all of us as we grieve our huge loss. Mossie Brown, Ger Mulhall and Arron Portlaoise A.F.C., thank you all so very much for the food you brought to our home.

To our sister-in-law Liz and her family for the beautiful food you brought everyday; To Avril, Rachael, Sylvia and Aimee O' Brien for making sure everyone was given something to eat and drink; To Willie Kerry for setting up a seating area in our garden, all of you made it possible for us to bring Mam home for those days. To Mam's great friends in the Parish Centre, we know you miss her as much as we do.

To Fr. David for your kindness to Mam, your beautiful eulogy in her honour, you knew her so well, you are and continue to be more than just our priest, you are family. Mam had so many wonderful friends, but she had two best friends in Margaret and Frances, thank you for making her life extra special, we hope you accept our deepest appreciation. To Mam's adored grandchildren, you made Nanna so very proud and to her adopted grandkids Conor and Ross.

To Matthew & David of Keegan's Funeral Directors, thank you for the professional, dignified and respectful manner in which you carried out Mam's funeral arrangements and to the gravediggers, Brendan and Adrian Dunne for preparing her final resting place with such care.

As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our deepest gratitude. Thank you all so very much from her heartbroken husband John and children John, Yvonne, Ken, Alan and families.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for your intentions.

Rest in Peace Maura

Daddy, what I would give to clasp your hand,
 Your happy face to see,
 To hear your voice and see your smile,
 That meant the world to me.

Loved and missed beyond words
Love always, Martina, John and Craig xxx

It's sad to walk the road alone,
 Without you by my side,
 And for all will come this moment,
 When the ways of life divide.

 Then by God's grace, we'll meet again,
 Beyond this vale of tears.
