All God's Children

Has anyone ever told you that they're proud of you? It's a good feeling it's a feeling that empowers a feeling that makes you believe you can do anything. Imagine for a moment that day on the River Jordan at Jesus' baptism. Consider how Jesus must have felt when the heavens opened and the Spirit of God spoke the words, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." Remember that this significant event took place at the beginning of Jesus' ministry before he had gone out into the world to teach or to heal. Before Jesus had done anything at all, God was already well pleased with him.

As baptism identified Jesus, so too are we identified in our baptism as children of God. So what significance does baptism have in our lives? Do we feel proud at God's affirmation? Do we feel empowered to carry out God's plan? In truth most of us would be confounded if we had to provide an answer to these questions. To most of us, our baptism is an old photo in a forgotten album of childhood memories, or a neglected christening mug collecting dust on a high up shelf. In our own baptism we do not have the obvious benefit of God speaking directly to us from the heavens. Nevertheless, we have made promises in baptism and confirmation, and like any other promise we have to work at keeping them. Baptism isn't a one off event. Baptism is a sacrament that we have to work at daily setting aside time to think about what we are meant to be doing and having the faith that God is supporting us in our efforts.

Jesus said of his baptism. "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness." Jesus didn't explain what he meant by this, but in biblical context, the word 'righteousness' is often used to express a good relationship with God. By this, we understand that our own baptism sends us off on the road to building a good relationship with God and with others, and by believing in God's backing, we are empowered to do more than we can imagine.

'This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him.'

Thought for the Day

Beginning here we glimpse the Three-In-one;

The river runs, the clouds are torn apart, the Father speaks,
the Spirit and the Son reveal to us the single loving heart.
That beasts behind the bring of all things and calls and keeps and kindles us to light. The dove descends, the spirit soars and sings

'You are beloved, you are my delight!' In that swift light and life, as water spills And streams around the Man like quickenning rain,

The voice that made the universe reveals

The God in Man who makes it new again.

He calls us too, to step into that river, to die and rise and live and love for ever.

Calling All History Lovers in Abbeyleix, Ballinakill & Ballyroan!

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU !!!

Abbeyleix

St. Columbanus Historical Society

Abbeyleix, Ballinakill & Ballyroan

Calling All History Lovers in Abbeyleix, Ballinakill & Ballyroan!

In 2026, we're bringing our three communities together to form a brandnew Historical Society—an open, welcoming group for anyone with an interest in local stories, old photographs, family histories, archaeology, heritage buildings, or simply a love of where we come from. Thanks to the Abbeyleix Men's Shed, we already have a home in St. Columbanus Hall, complete with a warm kettle and a warm welcome. This new society will be open to everyone—men and women from all three areas—working together to research, explore, preserve and celebrate the rich history of our towns and villages. If you'd like to learn more, help shape the committee, or be part of something meaningful for 2026 and beyond, we'd love to hear from you. Our past is full of stories worth keeping—let's gather them together.

Announcing our First Meeting

The first meeting will be held in the St. Columbanus Hall on Thursday evening the 15th of January at 7pm sharp. Parking available at the Abbeyleix Church car park.

HANDING ON

New Beginnings

January is an exciting time. It is the beginning of a brand new year. Some people like to make New Year's resolutions or promises to themselves about what they plan to accomplish in the new year. The number one resolution that people make is, "I am going to lose weight." I don't think too many people succeed, since it seems to be the number one resolution year after year. I know that it usually makes my top ten list of things I would like to accomplish in the new year.

Even if you don't make any New Year's resolutions, this is an exciting time. It is a time that we can forget our past mistakes and look forward to new opportunities that lie ahead of us. It is a time of new beginnings.

Jesus experienced times of new beginnings in his life too. One of those times was when he was baptised. There were a couple of very important things that happened when Jesus was baptised. First of all, the Bible tells us that the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit came down in the form of a dove and landed upon him. The second thing was that God spoke and said, "You are my Son. I love you and I am well-pleased with you."

This event marked the beginning of Jesus' ministry here on earth. Up until that time, he had not performed any miracles, but with God's stamp of approval and with the spirit of God upon him, Jesus began to perform great miracles. From this new beginning, many people began to understand that Jesus was truly the Son of God and they began to follow him.

Our own baptism represents a new beginning for us as well. When we are baptised, it shows the world that just as Jesus rose from the dead through the glory of God the Father, we also live a new life in him. (Romans 6:4) God may not always be well-pleased with us, but I think that He looks down with an approving smile when he sees us trying to walk with Jesus.

New beginnings — God gives us opportunities for new beginnings. Let us make the most of them as we live a new life in Christ through the power of his Holy Spirit.

OUR PRAYER

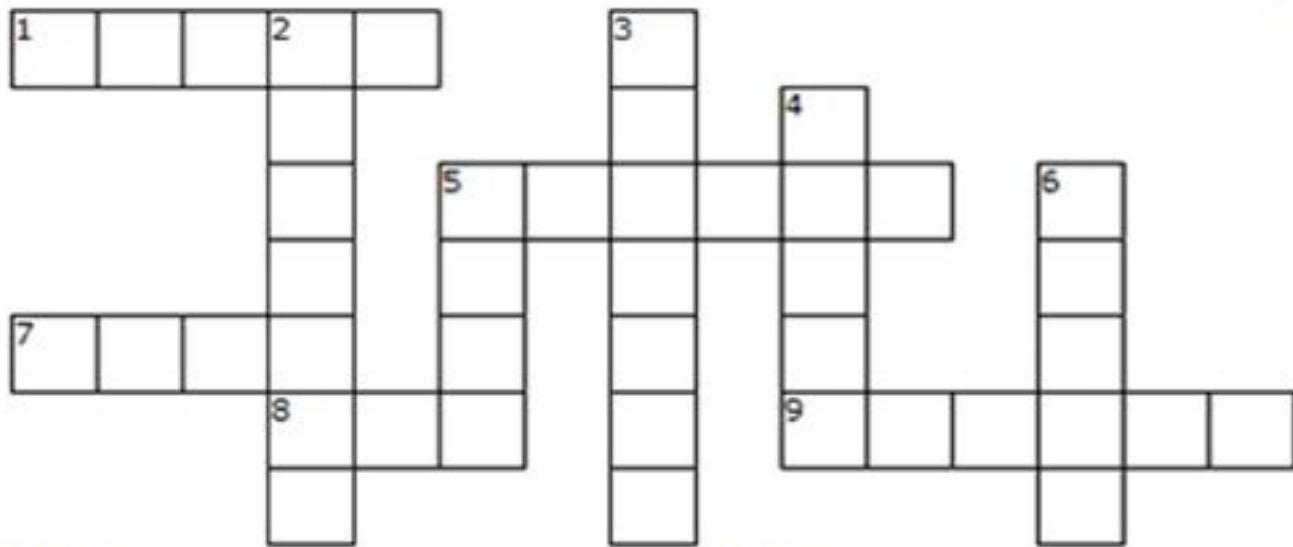

Dear Father, thank you for new beginnings. Help us to make the most of them - not through our own strength - but through the power of the Holy Spirit that dwells within us. Amen.

A gentle Reminder for Portlaoise Schools.
First Holy Communion Preparation ceremony will take place in the Parish Church, next Saturday 17th January at 5pm. Looking forward to seeing you there.

SCIENCE SUCCESS GOES FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH AT DUNAMASE COLLEGE

Four students from Dunamase College have qualified for the prestigious STRIPE Young Scientist Exhibition, which will take place in the RDS, Dublin, from January 7th to 10th.

In a remarkable achievement, this is only the second year Dunamase College has entered the competition, yet students have already progressed to the national stage, reflecting the school's rapidly developing culture of scientific inquiry and innovation.

Three Transition Year students, Melissa Barcoe, Leo Bennett and Cian Bonnie, will present a project investigating whether the mineral content of mains and well water affects taste to such an extent that families spend between €800 and €3,000 annually on bottled water. Their research explores the relationship between water quality, taste perception and consumer behaviour, raising important economic and environmental considerations.

Fifth-year student Angela Babikanga has also been selected for the exhibition with her project examining the mentality behind overconsumption among young people, which will be showcased and judged at the RDS this January.

Teachers Aisling McAuley and Grace Fanning praised the students for the exceptionally high standard of their work, noting that the success of these projects in only the school's second year entering the competition is a testament to the students' commitment, curiosity and scientific thinking.

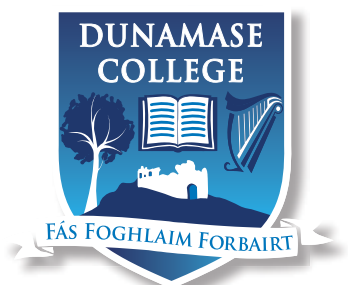

This achievement further strengthens Dunamase College's reputation as a school with a strong STEAM focus, building on recent successes as winners of the LOETB STEAM Competition for innovative work in Minecraft Education and Podcasting, as well as strong performances in the Laois County Council LEGO League Competition. These initiatives, alongside strong uptake and outcomes in science subjects, highlight the school's commitment to excellence in science and future-focused education.

Speaking about the achievement, Principal Dymphna Kelly said:

"We are incredibly proud of our students and staff. To reach the national stage of the STRIPE Young Scientist Exhibition in only our second year of participation is a significant milestone for Dunamase College. It reflects our strong emphasis on STEAM education, critical thinking and innovation, and our belief that students learn best when they are curious, creative and challenged. These successes demonstrate the quality of teaching and learning in science across the school and our commitment to excellence for every student."

The STRIPE Young Scientist Exhibition is a highly competitive national event celebrating innovation and scientific inquiry among secondary school students across Ireland. The entire Dunamase College community has expressed immense pride in the students' achievements and wishes them every success as they prepare to represent their school on the national stage.

Time to Think...

2026 A Time To Slow Down...

As we begin the early pathway of a new year, wisdom suggests walking easy, taking each step at a time. 2026, like every new year, brings an invitation to begin again. The biggest challenge in life is to live in the present moment, to breathe in the here and now, to be grounded in the present reality. How many of us carry burdens belonging to past years? too many faces a new year filled with anxiety about what might happen and unfortunately far too few can breathe easily in the here and now. To live in the present moment, is both gift and blessing and perhaps the most challenging and beneficial resolution as we begin 2026. The great prayer of Saint Padre Pio very beneficial this time of year. "By past life I give to your mercy O Lord, tomorrow I hand into your Providence, today let me live in your love"

Random Tales of Wisdom...

Sleep When the Wind Blows

How do you handle adversity? What are you thinking when the sun goes down on those cold, windy nights, when you're trying to get to sleep, and the wind keeps swirling and howling through your bedroom windows?

Sleep Soundly When the Wind Blows

Years ago a farmer owned land along the Atlantic seacoast. He constantly advertised for hired hands. Most people were reluctant to work on farms along the Atlantic. They dreaded the awful storms that raged across the Atlantic, wreaking havoc on the buildings and crops.

As the farmer interviewed applicants for the job, he received a steady stream of refusals. Finally, a short, thin man, well past middle age, approached the farmer.

"Are you a good farm hand?" the farmer asked him.

"Well, I can sleep when the wind blows," answered the little man.

Although puzzled by this answer, the farmer, desperate for help, hired him.

The little man worked well around the farm, busy from dawn to dusk, and the farmer felt satisfied with the man's work. Then one night the wind howled loudly in from offshore.

Jumping out of bed, the farmer grabbed a lantern and rushed next door to the hired hand's sleeping quarters.

He shook the little man and yelled, "Get up! A storm is coming! Tie things down before they blow away!"

The little man rolled over in bed and said firmly, "No sir. I told you, I can sleep when the wind blows."

Enraged by the response, the farmer was tempted to fire him on the spot.

Instead, he hurried outside to prepare for the storm. To his amazement, he discovered that all of the haystacks had been covered with tarpaulins. The cows were in the barn, the chickens were in the coops, and the doors were barred. The shutters were tightly secured.

Everything was tied down. Nothing could blow away.

The farmer then understood what his hired hand meant, so he returned to his bed to also sleep while the wind blew.

Can you sleep when the wind blows? When you're prepared, spiritually, mentally, and physically, you have nothing to fear.

A Cat Goes To Heaven

A cat dies and goes to Heaven. God meets him at the gate and says, 'you have been a good cat all of these years. Anything you desire is yours, all you have to do is ask.' The cat says, 'Well, I lived all my life with a poor family on a farm and had to sleep on hardwood floors.' God says, 'Say no more.' And instantly, a fluffy pillow appears.

A few days later, 6 mice are killed in a tragic accident and they go to Heaven. God meets them at the gate with the same offer that He made the cat. The mice said, 'All our lives we've had to run. Cats, dogs and even women with brooms have chased us. If we could only have a pair of roller skates, we wouldn't have to run anymore.' God says, 'Say no more.' And instantly, each mouse is fitted with a beautiful pair of tiny roller skates.

About a week later, God decides to check and see how the cat is doing. The cat is sound asleep on his new pillow. God gently wakes him and asks, 'How are you doing? Are you happy here?' The cat yawns and stretches and says, 'OH, I've never been happier in my life. And those Meals on Wheels you've been sending over are the best!

A prayer to help live in the present moment for 2026

Slow Me Down Lord

Slow me down, Lord.

Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind.

Steady my hurried pace with a vision of the eternal reach of time.

Give me, amid the confusion of the day, the calmness of the everlasting hills.

Break the tensions of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory. Help me to know the magical, restoring power of sleep.

Teach me the art of taking minute vacations—of slowing down to look at a flower,

to chat with a friend,

to pat a dog,

to read a few lines from a good book.

Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that the race is not always to the swift—that there is more to life than increasing its speed.

Let me look upward into the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly and well.

Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life's enduring values that I may grow toward the stars of my greater destiny.

Amen.
